

BHASKAR LAW COLLEGE

(Approved by the B.C.I & Affiliated to Osmania University)

Dr. Mohana Rao Pedada is an accomplished Assistant Professor of Law, having joined BLC on March 2, 2024. With over 34 years of experience in law teaching and related fields, Dr. Pedada holds a B.Com from Andhra University, an LL.B and LL.M from Berhampur University, and a Ph.D from the same institution. His scholarly contributions include several published articles in esteemed journals, such as “Political Moral Decadence and the Criminal Nexus” in the International Journal of Socio-Legal Research (2019), “Judicial Review as an inviolable part of the basic structure of Constitution” in the International Journal of Law Management & Humanities (2019), and “Women empowerment through judicial and legislative activism” in the International Journal of Research and Analytical Review (2024).

Dr. Pedada has actively participated in numerous workshops and seminars, addressing topics like Intellectual Property Rights and Human Rights, held at prominent institutions such as KL University and Osmania University. His forthcoming paper, “A critical study on sentencing policy in India with special reference to New criminal laws,” is set to be presented at a national seminar in November 2024. Beyond academics, he has played a vital role in organizing legal aid programs and legal literacy initiatives, collaborating with the District Legal Services Authority to foster community awareness. He also successfully trained teams for moot court competitions, leading them to win prestigious awards. Through his diverse contributions, Dr. Pedada exemplifies a commitment to legal education, research, and community engagement.